ARCTIC MINE HAS SUIT AGAINST THE DISTRICT

A new bunch of litigation for the Nevada Irrigation District is contained in a suit filed by Lawson F. Utter, J. Fred Zeller, Grace C. Williams, John T. Price, F. J. Reitz and Max D. Compton as plaintiffs in the office of County Clerk George Coughlan the past few days. A number of attorneys appear in the pleadings, F. T. Nilon being local counsel.

The plaintiffs allege that they are the owners of certain mining claims on Canyon creek above Washington, named as Washington Chief Consolidated, Cosmopolitan Ledge and Nevada Quartz, and have an estate nd interest in the Arctic Mine, Arctic North Extension, Arctic South Extension, Mascot, Golden Rule, North Extension Golden Rule, Good Luck, West Arctic, South Extension West Arctic, Sereus, South Extension Sereus, Canyon Mine, New York and New York North Extension quartz claims. Certain agreements executed between Martin Vanberg and Ole Helgeson with J. P. Flint are attached and made a part of the complaint.

The complaint sets forth that a certain natural water course, Canyon Creek, also known as Big Canyon Creek runs through or borders the minisg property referred to and that it is a living stream which rises in the Sierra Nevada to the eastward, that it has its source at an elevation over 6000 feet and is fed by the melting snows and until its alleged interference by the defendant irrigation district flowed constantly a stream of water of not less than 2000 miners' inches and at certain times flowed as much as 1000 cubic feet per second in the winter and spring seasons. The allegation is made that Texas creek which is tributry to Canyon Creek flowed a large stream of water until interfered with by the distict's operations.

The plaintiffs allege that they are entitled to possession, use and enjoyment of the "Arctic Water Right" or of at least 2000 inches of water from a dam across the creek at the Mascot claim, and all of the flow when less than that amount; that such use and diversion had been enjoyed for more than 18 years past for the generation of electricity and compression of air, prior to July 1st, 1927, when it is alleged that the irrigation district has interfered with the stream frolw.

The right of the irrigation district to impound in Bowman Lake n excess of 5000 acre feet adverse to said claimed right of plaintiffs is questioned.

The plaintiffs set forth that their water rights are worth the sum of $150,000. It is charged that defendant district erected two large impervious dams to increase the storage capacity of Bowman Lake and that said district has since continued to impound said waters and to deliver it to Lake Spaulding outside of the watershed of Canyon creek. It is charged that by reason of such diversion of water, that the plaintiffs are unable to operate their power plant or their mine and that continued diversion will operate to the damage of the plaintiffs in the sum of $75,000. That the mining claims are at a great distance from any other source of power except that generated from the water of Canyon creek. It is further charged that the irrigation district has made no compensation to plaintiffs in the matter

The right of the irrigation district to divert the water adversely to the plaintiffs is questioned.

It is presumed that the distrirt will set up the point of laches in its answer to the suit as it has in the suits brought by John Phelps and Chris Hansen.

That the suit will be bitterly contested is apparent as the Arctic property prior to the operation of the irrigation district had long been an opeating property and posseses a fine power plant with which to operate its mine. The property has been idle practically since the district commenced the diversion of water from the Yuba watershed into Lake Spaulding. The mining industry will watch with great interest the progress of the suit as the water problem has been a serious one for the mines on the Yuba watershed since the district commenced operations.

A similar complaint has been filed by Martin Van Berg and J. P. Flindt who are the original owners of the mining property.

ANOTHER PLACER MINE STARTS SIERRA COUNTY

DOWNIEVILLE, Mar. 17 (Special to The Nugget)—Aonther property in this section is due to get under way when the Dirty Plate in Secret Canyon, three miles from here, starts up. Stanley Craig and J. K. Latta are are owners and have some promising ground to work.

TAHOE UKIAH HIGHWAY CONTRACT TO BE LET

The welcome news has been received here that the state highway commission proposes during the coming month to let a contract for the eastern end of the Tahoe Ukiah state highway, running from the present terminus 12 miles east of Nevada City to a connection with the Victory Highway above Emigrant Gap, presumably near Yuba Pass on the Southern Pacific.

The present improvement nuw under contract runs to near Junction House and is to be paved 20 feet wide during the early summer. The contract to be let will extend from the present contract down into Bear Valley on a 6% grade and thence out of the valley to the transcontinental highway 40. This will be one of the biggest things that has happened to Nevada county in a long time and the attitude of the present highway commission with the earnest cooperation of Bert B. Meek as head of the department of public works will greatly redound to the credit of our state administration.

Word has also been received that the federal bureau of public roads will call for bids on 3.1 miles from Lady Canyon west to nearly Shady Flat on the Downieville-Sierra City route. It is expected that work on this stretch will be under way by early summer. The government hopes to complete the entire 13 miles between Downieville and Sierra City during 1931 and with the state highway commission putting in a new alignment between North San Juan and Camptonville together with numerous changes in the present route at other points, means that Sierra county will soon be made readily available with a modern road system.

ENGLEBRIGHT IS PLANNING NEW LEGISLATION

Congressman Harry L. Englebright, assiduous friend of the gold mining industry, has been putting in some industrious licks in Washington shaping legislaton destined to bring the industry to something of its former status. It was known at the last session that he had introduced a bill to remove the income tax on gold production but he now also has legislation pending to provide a bonus above the government price of $20.67 per ounce.

The news was released by R. L. Kimmel at the Friday meeting of the Sacramento Chapter of the Mining Association of California, having been brought back by J. C. Kemp Van Ee from Washington. It was stated that the new measure was similar to the McFadden bill which provided a bonus of $10.00 per ounce on mined gold, irrespective of supply or demand. This bill failed of passage. With a mining engineer in the presidency, and one as our congressman, the mining industry is recieving more consideration in Washington than it has in many years past. It is reported that the Englebright bill on the income tax stands a good chance of passage. Removal of this tax would be a real victory for the miners and would affect favorably a large number of northern California properties which are now afflicted with excessive taxation.

All three ladies have expressed themselves as much in favor of the new Association, and as they are experienced miners, the organization is fortunate to have their cooperation. GRAVEL MINING OPERATIONS TO BEGIN S. Y. CO.

Nevada county's newest mining operations are in the vicinity of Washington where the South Yuba Limited is preparing to work large gravel deposits in the South Yuba just east of the townsite and further upstream.

A large Thew shovel was unloaded at the railroad depot the past week and will be taken to the site of operations as soon as the road conditions permit. The shovel will be used both for excavation work as well as a temporary power plant. Other equipment including a compressor is being assembled and with the coming of better roads into the property will be brought in.

The company has taken over the placer holdings of the Washington Mining and Development Company including the claims known as the Foster and Association groups and consists of a large amount of property having known values.

Company representatives stated to The Nugget that they were not prepared to issue any statements regarding their operations until the weather has cleared sufficiently to permit the placing of equipment and preparing the surface plant. Charles H. Shaw is general manager and W. E. Plank is consulting engineer. Offices are maintained in San Francisco.

JOHN S COREY MAKES HIS DESIRES KNOWN

While there have been rumblings of numerous candidates for the post of supervisor now held by Henry Goudge in the Second District, John S. Corey has been the first one to come forward and make his desires known in that regard, and in that connection he is playing better with his constituency than those who hang back waiting for the psychological moment. The only psychology is to get into the fight early and stay with it.

John, who has been a leading factor in the affairs of the Grass Valley district, is well known as a hard fighter for what he considers right. His straightforward policy at all times has won for him a host of friends in his community who will welcome the opportunity to assist him in his aspirations. He stated to a Nugget representative that under no circumstances would he have considered his candidacy for the post had re felt that the district was getting the representation it was entitled to and that he believed he was capable of giving the Second District the best service it had seen from a supervisor. He said that he had but one pledge to make and that was that he proposed to deliv- worth of value for every dollar expended. Having lived for 20 years in the district he feels that he knows its every need. He represents no particular political association.

Miss Florence Hatcher of North Columbia was a recent county seat visitor.

COUNTY POLLIES GETTING WARM THE CAMPAIGN

The political pot continues to simmer more strongly in this county as new candidates enter the ring and prepare to engage in the battle of votes the coming summer. This issue of The Nugget sees two new candidates in the persons of Mrs. Ella M. Austin, who has served the county so efficiently as superintendent of schools, and John S. Corey, who is seeking the post of supervisor of the second district.

It has been reported that Mrs. Austin was undecided about entering the race but with her formal announcement the atmosphere in that regard has been cleared up. This estimable woman has given years of faithful, painstaking service in the office and her many friends will be pleased to learn of her decision to again seek the office after much urging.

The office of sheriff has been the cause of much street talk and many rumors have been filling the air. So far all are chary of making any formal announcement and the situation appears badly muddled. It is known that there are many hopefuls including several strong Grass Valley residents who are expecting to get into the fray.

The entry of John Corey into the supervisor fight promises to furnish some real fireworks during the course of the campaign as John is a real scrapper and does not mince words when seeking to prove his point. That there will be strenuous competition goes without saying and the campaign in the second district should be a hectic affair.

The candidacy of Walter Mobley and Thomas Oliver for the two Nevada Township offices of justice of the peace and constable have been very favorably received and they have been receiving many congratulations from their myriad friends.

The post of city trustee looks to be still begging for candidates but there will doubtless be some last minute entries.

It has been rumored that several are casting their eyes enviously at Judge Charley Ocker over Truckee was and figure on shying their hats into the ring but Charley got the jump on them and he promises to keep the pot boiling between now and election and with his past excellent record to lean on, he should poll a fine vote.

State politics have been taking a more definite turn the past week according to astute observers who have been watching the trend of affairs. One hopeful sign is that the Mining Association of California has been getting recognition from unexpected quarters and promises to get more as the campaign progresses. The fast increasing membership of the association is having its salutary effect on those who figured it would never be organized and it is bound to play an important part in years to come as its prestige increases.

NEVADA CITY NATIVE SPEEDS TO MONTANA

Taking a limited train to Reno, he chartered a plane there to complete the journey. He made the trip in safety and in time to render professional aid.

COZY CORNER CHAT

THE PROMOTION BOARD is starting a good work in proposing to take up the work of colonizing the lands of the county. It would have been better if some of the money previously spent had gone into that work, the results would have been of a more lasting character. We are glad that the board is starting to pick up the loose threads for what it was originally intended to do. It had a definite field in which to work, a field not duplicated by any other effort now being put forth by our other civic bodies. As long as it stays in that field and does not propose to duplicate the work of the development asociation or the chambers of commerce it is entitled to support in such measure as it accomplishes tangible results and it has an activity where it can readily be judged by its fruits. We wish it well.

WE ARE HOPING that our new officers of the local Chamber of Commerce will recognize the importance of the mining industry in this community and do everything that they can to foster its growth. A strong mining committee can do much to attract attention to our major industry. There are not many chambers of commerce anywhere that foster industrial activity outside of the metropolitan centers and yet industrial enterprises are the ones that maintain steady payrolls that enrich the local merchants that are out after business T.here is no greater effort that a chamber of commerce can put forth than to encourage industrial growth. Our new president being a mining man will doubtless be energetic in that regard. We predict for him a fruitful year. The Chamber under its retiring pesident, R. J. Bennetts, showed a remarkable growth in membership and interest and accomplished much. AAW

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Girl's Physical Education classes have organized some new sports. An archery set was purchased for them and some of the girls donated hoseshoes. Th earchery set is for the girls who are physicaliy unable to take part in the more strenuous games. However, all the girls are very enthusiastic about archery and wish that they had moe sets.

Many of the girls enjoy playing horseshoes, so they have organized horseshoe teams. The girls who do not care for either horseshoes or archery play hockey and volley ball.

HEALTH TALK

Last Tuesday the Nevada City High School had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Neilson's address on Physical Education. He is a representative of the State Board of California. His speech was very beneficial as he gave the importance of physical education and how the purpose of it has changed from former years. He also told about the California state law which all schools must abide by. A number of visitors heard the talk.

After the talk, a group of girls put on a series of dances. Thelma Borcham and Dorothy Tamblyn danced the sailor's hornpipe and Deynes Foley and Gertrude Marriott a pirate dance.

Mrs. Lila Champion is visiting in Richmond. Mrs. Kitely, who has vsited in Grass Valley three weeks, returned with her.

HONOR ROLL

The following pupils have made the honor roll this month:

Seniors—Nadine Sutton, Gertrude Jones.

Junior—Harriett Bleakley.

Freshmen— Norma Kesler and Katherine Celio.

Special Students—Madeline Himes and Kathleen Greenaway.

The honor society has been slowly increasing since the beginning of the year and it is hoped that before long we will have an honor society to be proud of.

BOOK REPORTS

Thelma Boreham and Dorothy Tamblyn entertained the members of Women's Improvement Club with Book Reports Monday evening. Dorothy reported upon, "With Malice Toward None", by Honore Wilson Morrow and Thelma reported upon "The Trumpeter of Krakow" by Eric P. Kelley.

The reports were well delivered and proved very entertaining to the club members.

EARLY DAY NEWSPAPERS

The American History Class has been studying old newspapers. There have been several interesting papers brought to school. Thelma Boreham and Ruth Noyes brought two editions of the New York Herald that were published April 15, 1865 at the time President Lincoln was shot. The papers are so brittle with age, that they cannot be handled very much.

Barbara McMinn brought several copies of the Nome Nugget published in Nome which is another very interesting paper.

EPWORTH LEAGUE GAME

Last Saturday, March 8, a group of boys from the Nevada City Chapter of the Epworth League went to Oakland to play a quintette of Epworth Leaguers from that city.

The lineup for Nevada City was as follow: Addison Janes, Bob Polglase, Bill Tamblyn, Carl Murchie and Carl Baker. Although the boys from Nevada City played a very hard game and used good teamwork, they were on the wrong side of a 58-35 score.

Mr. Pedersen kindly took the boys down in his car, and though it was somewhat crowded, they all had an enjoyable time.

WORK ON N C H S FIELD

For the past two weeks, the boys of the Nevada City High School have been working very industriously on the grounds in anticipation of the spring season of track. The greater part of the work done by the boys was digging ditches behind the pole vault and high jump. The ditches or holes will be filled with a mixture of sawdust, shavings and sand. Last year sawdust alone was used and proved unsatisfactory because of its inclination to pack. The mixture of sand will offset this inclination. The board plans to have some one level off the field. When all this work is accomplished, the students of N. C. H. S. will have a satisfactory field.

QUILLOMETER

The Senior Class have placed a Quillometer in the study hall. This Quillemeter is made on the order of a thermometer. As the names of all students who have paid their first 25c on the Quill are placed on the side of the Quillometer, it rises. We need school spirit. Pay your money now or you may be left without a Quill.

RESOLUTIONS ARE SENT EAST TO WASHINGTON

The following resolutions adopted unanimously by the local Chapter of the Mining Association of California at its recent meeting at Washington, were telegraphed to Congressman Harry L. Englebright, Clarence F. Lea, and Charles F. Curry and Senators Samuel Shortridge and Hiram W. Johnson:

Auburn, Calif., March 1, 1930.

Whereas it apparently has become the policy of the Forest Service to obtain control as far as possible of surface rights to all lands including mineral lands within the National Forest.

And Whereas this class of legislation is in clear violation of the rights of citizens to prospect and work mines on any vacant public lands.

And Whereas any loss of the full surface rights to mineral land is inimical to the interest of mining and would result n great loss to this industry by depriving it if the rights to timber, water and use of the surface for necessary works all of which are indispensable to the working of the mines.

And Whereas the Norbeck and bills of kindred intent having to do with throttling the mining industry introduced in the United States Senate or House of Representatives seriously menace the future of one of our nations basic industries, and detrimental to the mining interests partcularly affecting surface rights to mineral property.

Therefore Be it Resolved, that the Mining Association of California this day assembled at Auburn hereby deplores any and all such attempts to hamper mining operations in any degree and directs that copies of this resolution be sent to our Senators and Representatives in Congress. (Unanimously Passed).

The bill was discovered by our assiduous Harry after it had slipped through the Senate and he blocked its further passage. Suitable resolutions commending our congressman for his work were passed at the first meeting of the local chapter.

FROM ENGLEBRIGHT

The following letter aws received from our congressman:

My dear Friend Willoughby,—

Your telegram of the 3rd inst., quoting resolution passed at Auburn on March 1, 1930, regarding the surface rights of mineral lands in National Forests, and the Norbeck and similar bills, has been received

As you know, I have strenuously fought such measures and succeeded in having the Norbeck bill rejected from the Public Lands Committee of the House. I will continue to use my vigilance in these matters for the protection of the mining industry.

With the best of wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

HARRY L. ENGLEBRIGHT.

MC 2nd District of California.

The following telegraphic response was received by the chapter secretary Friday:

A. A. Willoughby,

Nevada City, Calif.,

Thank you for giving me the views of your Association as expressed in resolution embodied in your March 3d telegram to the subject matter of which I shall devote careful consideration.

Samuel M. Shortridge.

FROM JOHNSON

My dear Mr. Willoughby:

I acknowledge receipt of your telegram of the 3d, conveying to me the Resolution adopted at a meeting of your Association held at Auburn, in regard to the bill of Senator Norbeck.

Soncerely yours,

HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

FROM LEA

Dear Mr. Willoughby:

I received your wire of the 3rd in reference to proposed legislation restricting the rights of locators on mining claims. I am glad you called this matter to my attention. Of course, I realize that a locator on a mining claim must have the use of water, timber and surface, at least so far as necessary to conduct his operations and realize on his mineral values. So, I will look into the matter further.

Sincerely yours,

CLARENCE F. LEA.

FRENCH CORRAL ITEMS

tance. Poke fun at it, who will, but we can not do so, for after half a century's service it has become endeared to us, and it has certainly given Nevada City distinction that it could in no other way have had, and it would indeed be a calamity should we have to lose it. People of our county do all you can to keep it!

Reading in the last two issues of The Nugget poems by French Corral authors, gives us quite a puffed up feeling here. We are so pleased to know we have such literary talent. We hope that J. M. Swazey will continue his good work and always boost the San Juan Ridge. And we hope that "The Lorelei" will give the returns it now gives promise to and thereby reclaim this dear old place and enrich it's owner, Mrs. Laura Hardenbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Whiting, Mr. and Mrs. D. Eldredge and sons and W. Whiting motored to Livermore to visit Mrs. Mary Whiting, who is ill at the home of her brother, William Gregory.

Cecil Tremewan visited relatives and friends in the Sacramento Valley early last week.

Wm. Williams was a recent business visitor in San Francisco.

CAMPTONVILLE JOTS

CAMPTONVILLE, — As was her request, the remains of the late Mrs. Addie Larsen, who was painfully almost burned alive Sunday morning when her clothing took fire from a heating stove, were laid to rest Wednesday afternoon at the family cemetery on the Jayne ranch a couple of miles south of here, Justice of the Peace W. B. Meek officiating.

This accident has cast a great shadow of grief over the community. Mrs. Larsen was one of the old pioneers, living a life of hardship and bringing into the world her family under difficulty, and now at this time during her old age, when she was able to live a little more in ease and comfort, to be stricken in this manner brings much sadness into our hearts.

The grammar school, and high school started Monday following the regular winter vacation, with a good attendance and several new pupils. The grammar school is in charge of Miss Doris Nightingale, principal and Mrs. J. P. Smart in charge of the primary room. Mrs. Kate Hope Livingston, membe of the Board of Education, is in charge of th elocal branch high school. Some very good work is looked forward to this season.

Charles C. Skewes of Nevada City passed through town Tuesday.

Jack Lee passed through Tuesday from Marysville enroute to his home at Sierra City.

W. H. Wayman, present operator, has been awarded the Camptonville-Pike City Mail Contract for the next four years.

Coffin Floats Down

Cnsiderable excitement was noticed here Sunday when it was reported that a crude wooden coffin had floated down Willow Creek and lodged on the banks in Garden Valley. The person wh ohad seen it did not have courage enough to venture close enough to find out whether anything was in it or not. Many suppositions were put forth, some said it was the coffin of an old Indian buried near the upper end of the creek, many years ago, others said it was that of a Chinaman, but commonsense revealed the fact that no one had been buried of late near the creek, and the coffins of those mentioned would be decayed and gone by this time. The news reached Downieville where it was enlarged upon a little with the addition that a skeleton was found in the box.

The box was on the dredging companies land, and close examination revealed that the box of great mystery turned out to be a crude wooden boat, shaped like a coffin, made by some of the children of an employee on the dredge last summer. The boat had drifted to the bank and was upside down, looking in shape like a coffin.

Mrs. Eila M. Austin, county superintendent of schools, visited Clerk Creek and Indian Springs schools last week.

Among those attending the funeral of the late A. M. Clark were, his cousin, Mrs. Joseph Marchand and son of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. George A Black of Santa Barbara. Mrs. Black and Mrs. Clark are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Carter and son, Clark, were called to Nevada City last Sunday by the tragic death of A. M. Clark.

Mrs. Frank McKeon of San Francisco was the guest of friends in Nevada City.

Geo. F. Taylor Geo. Norman and Tony Costa of Downieville attended the funeral of the late A. M. Clark

Gordon Bettles was called to Los Angeles by the death of his father-in-law, J. T. Jacobson. Mrs. Bettles has been with her father for several days.

Gas

—a safe fuel for heating your home

Facts published by "The National Board of Fire Underwriters" prove that gas fuel is the safest of all fuels.

Furthermore, physicians know that gas fuel is absolutely safe when burned in MODERN, UP-TO-DATE appliances. Perhaps you recall the old portable heating appliances which were connected with a flimsy rubber hose to a gas pipe. These appliances were not vented and the results were often unpleasant. People blamed the gas fuel. As a matter of fact, the blame should really have been placed upon the poorly-designed appliances. To judge modern gas-fired equipment upon the basis of such obsolete equipment is like comparing coal oil lamps with modern electric lights.

In modern heating appliances, gas fuel burns in a steel firebox. The invisible products of combustion go outdoors through a chimney—just as smoke does from any fire. In no way can the gas escape into your home. That is why gas fuel produces healthful heat.

In addition, gas burns clean without any smoke or dirt. It is the easiest fuel to control and you can have an even, warm temperature in your home without any effort on your part.

For full details about heating equipment that burns gas fuel, see a heating contractor or phone or call at our office.

SCOUTING

A troop of experienced Scouts under competent leadership is a valua-ble organization to any city. It is usually the only group which regularly operates under discipline in this country outsde of the military. Scout troops the nation over have proved to be of incalculable value inrelief and emergency service during floods, earthquakes and the results of other devastating forces. They have found lost children and have conducted parades and guided traffic. And, they will take tenderfeet into their midst and within a year or two these same tenderfeet will have absorbed the spirit of Scouting and will take the place of their predecessors in the troop when the older Scouts have taken their place in civic life, better citizens by far for havng had the benefits of Scout training.

TROOP MEETING

Bob Tucker, Reporter

The regular meeting of the Boy Scouts of Troop 6 was held at their headquarters in the Masonic building at 7:15 Wednesday evening Ma,rch 12th .The usual number of about fourteen Scouts were in attendance. An improvement in the number of the boys who wish to become Scouts aws noted. Tests in Morse signalling and knot tying were worked on.

In addition to the routine business, plans for a hike to take place Sunday, March 16th, were made. It was decided the hike would be to Blue Tent. The main purpose of the hike will be to pass some of the boys in their cooking and hiking tests for Second Class. The members of the troop will assemble at the Scout Hall at nine ocl'ock Sunday morning with their equipment and rations.

A visitor, Mr. DeWein, was present at the meeting. The officials present were committeemen Dr. Chapman, Miles Coughlin and acting scoutmaster Muller Chapman. ELKS LEND HALL FOR HORSESHOE BANQUET

Only one team each year can win he indoor horseshoe pitching tournament of Nevada City but every member of the four lodges composing the tournament can and most of them do manage to attend the closing event of the season, the celebration and banquet at which the winners are crowned and the losers polish the china-ware a la soapsuds.

This year Hydraulic Parlor of Native Sons ended on the top roost and they will have the honor for the coming year of holding the time-honored horse-shoe which is the emblem of their prowess. The presentation will probably be made by Captain Baptiste Toccalini of Corte Cristoforo Colombo, the team that last year received the trophy from these same Native Sons who had won it the year before.

The dinner will be held through the courtesy of Nevada City Lodge 518 at the banquet room in the Elks 'Hall at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening, March 22. The Elks did sot have a team in the horseshoe pitching tournament and their kindness in offering their hall was accepted with appreciation by the general committee of the tournament.

NEW GOLF COMMITTEE AFTER THE HANDICAPS

The new tournament and rules committee appointed for the local golf club which consists of Stuart Hosking, A. R. Archibald, Fred Nettell, W. E. Wright, Ray Sparnon, W. Spargo, C. A. Rush and A. H. Mooser, is proposing to establish a series of handicaps for the playing members of the club on a scientific basis and arrive at the merits of the various players, a new departure for the club. Hosking appears as umpire, Archibald referee and Nettell handicapper. These are excellent selections.

If this committee will have the fairways marked properly and let the careless drives into the rough be penalized as they should be they will be accomplishing something worth while for the popularity of the game.

Improving the lie in the rough is a new experience to those who have been accustomed to playing where rules have been more strict.

George E. Walling, who presides over the destinies of Nevada City's bowlng aspirations, after consultation with Si Perkins who works similarly in Grass Valley, is seeking to line up two teams of Nevada City's leading pin spillers to engage in combat with two teams from Grass Valley.
